HELPING HANDS FOR TRANSCARPATHIA

Newsletter about the grants and assistance provided by the Rákóczi Foundation for the refugees from Ukraine and Transcarpathia

Since the first day of the war in Ukraine, the Rákóczi Foundation has been helping disadvantaged young people in Transcarpathia and providing support to three organizations working to ease the suffering of the Ukrainian refugees in Transcarpathia.

SUPPORT FOR YOUNG PEOPLE IN TRANSCARPATHIA

The Foundation supports 41 young Hungarians in Transcarpathia in the form of scholarships and extraordinary grants totaling $20,000 CAD. These students have lost their sources of income, many of them have had to flee their communities and their homeland.

MÁRIA POKROVA CHARITY FUNDATION

The Maria Pokrova Charity Foundation received a grant of $5,000 CAD. From this amount, they support the free kitchen of the Nagybereg region, where some 100 people are provided hot meals each day. Some 25 people receive assistance in the kindergarten of Császlóc (Csaszlivci). The Foundation also provides aid for the Catholic community in Tiszabökény (Tiszobikeny).

From this support, 80 food packages were distributed to elderly residents in Jánosi (Yanoshi), Balazsér (Balazser), Újlak (Vilok) and Csetfalva (Csetfolvo).

HUNGARIAN REFORMED CHARITY SERVICE

This organization provides refugees with food, tea, drinking water, hygiene products, information and temporary accommodation. More than 50 tons of aid has been delivered to Transcarpathia. The Rákóczi Foundation supported the work of this organization with a S3,000. Donation.

TRANSCARPATHIAN COMMUNITY OF HUNGARIAN INTELLECTUALS

The Hungarian Learned Society of Transcarpathia has been active since 1993 in the development of Hungarian community life in Transcarpathia through various literary, historical and cultural programs. This organization received S2,000.CAD to continue their educational programs.

THANK YOU ON BEHALF OF ALL THOSE WHO BENEFIT FROM YOUR GENEROSITY!

We are grateful to all the supporters who have contributed to helping the lives of people in extremely difficult situations. Our work is ongoing!

Rakoczi Foundation
80 Carlton Street
M5B 1L6 Toronto
(416)413-1300 Ext.:239
info@rakoczi.ca